

October 7, 2011

Federal Data Center Consolidation Initiative – The Department of Defense (DoD) has developed a draft 2011 Data Center Consolidation Plan and Progress report for public release. The Department is planning to release it within 30 days; it is currently in internal DoD review for approval. DoD remains on target to achieve or exceed previously stated goals for data center closures and consolidation.